

FAIR FOOD – DOCUMENTARY FILM

LICENSING AGREEMENT

AUSTRALIAN FOOD SOVEREIGNTY ALLIANCE INC (AFSA)

- and -

[INSERT NAME OF COMMUNITY GROUP / ORGANISATION]

1. AFSA holds the rights and title in the documentary, Fair Food.
2. In consideration of payment of $300, or such other sum as agreed, AFSA grants to [name of organization] a licence to screen Fair Food and (if it wishes) to charge an admission price.
3. The licence is valid indefinitely, or until such time as AFSA and [name of organisation] agree to terminate it. During that period, [name of organisation] can organise and hold as many public screenings of the film as it wishes, and charge admission if it wishes.
4. The licence is not transferrable to any other organisation or individual.
5. The licence prohibits:
  - copying of the DVD
  - loaning or passing on of the DVD to other organisations or individuals to conduct screenings
  - use of the DVD by for-profit organisations to raise funds
6. To facilitate the screening of Fair Food, upon receipt of payment of the license fee, AFSA shall send by ordinary post to [name of organisation] one copy of the DVD of the documentary. AFSA shall also make available printed materials to support the screening, and promote the screening on its websites (www.justfoodfilms.com, www.australianfoodsovereigntyalliance.org, www.fairfoodweek.org.au), as well as its various social media platforms and e-newsletters.
7. Payment of the license fee is to be made by cheque or direct deposit to:
